Andrew Hunter Holmes of the United States Army being first duly sworn deposes & saith that the said Andrew Hunter hath good reason to believe and doth suspect that the above named persons did on or about the sixteenth of the present month of year receive on board certain skiffs and perogues to the number of five and did assist & abett in thus receiving a large quantity of foreign goods which goods had been unlawfully put ashore from a certain vessel or vessels lying at anchor at or near the Lake of Para tania and which goods were subject to Revenue Duties, the same not having been paid. And the said Andrew Hunter further saith that the said goods are of the value of three thousand Dollars more or less. and further saith not
