

~~Attest~~

Capt: Peter V Ogden appeared who being duly sworn saith, that on Sunday morning the 12th instant, he received through an orderly Sergeant an order from General Jackson, of which the following is a copy -

Presented with the 11th 1815
New Orleans March 11th 1815

Sir

You will detail from your Troop a discreet non Commissioned officer and four men, and direct them to call on the officer commanding the 3^d U.S. infantry for Dominick a Ball who is confined in the Guard house for exciting mutiny and desertion within the encampment of the City.

Upon the receipt of the prisoner, the non Commissioned officer will conduct him up the Coast beyond the lines of Gen: Carrol's encampment, deliver him the enclosed orders, and set him at liberty.

By Command

The Butler aid de Camp.

Capt: Peter V Ogden
Commanding Troop of Cavalry
N. Orleans.

— That the deponent, in obedience to s^d foregoing order, he the deponent ordered a guard to be detailed of four men and a non Commissioned officer, with directions to convey Judge Hall beyond the lines of Gen: Barrol's Camp which was about four miles above the Town of New Orleans - That the said Non Commissioned Officer returned about in the Ev and