UNITED STATES vs. CITY OF NEW ORLEANS

June 06, 2013

1 SHARONDA WILLIAMS: Good morning. This is June
2 6, 2013. In the matter of the United States of America
3 vs. City of New Orleans, Eastern District of Louisiana, 4 Civil Docket No. 12-01924, this is the last meeting that 5 will be held on this issue.

6 As in the previous meetings, the City is 7 participating in this meeting, reserving all of its 8 rights and arguments that will be the subject of an 9 appeal in this lawsuit.

10 Just to give everyone an update on what has been 11 happening since the last public meeting on April 15, 12 2013, the parties have been -- pursuant to court order, 13 four members of the Selection Committee have been 14 actively engaged in contacting members of the two 15 remaining monitor candidate teams, Sheppard Mullin and 16 Hillard Heintz. We have had numerous telephone 17 conferences and I have been doing research and obtaining 18 additional information with the goal of trying to come
19 to an agreement on a monitor for the NOPD consent 20 decree.

21 In the context of those discussions, we've had 22 phone calls with the principals of both candidate teams, 23 both Arnette Heintz and Terry Hillard. We've had 24 conversations with David Douglas, Jonathan Aronie from 25 the Sheppard Mullin team. We've also had conversations

1 with Dr. Owen (Inaudible) and Kathleen O'Toole from the 2 Hillard Heintz team. We've had conversations with 3 Dennis Nowicki, Michael Bromwich and Michael Gennaco.
4 So we have been actively obtaining additional 5 information about these teams in an effort to come to an 6 agreement.

7 Much of the information that's been shared has 8 given us new light on the list of qualifications and 9 experience levels on all the -- of all the members of 10 the teams that we've talked about and discussed, and in 11 the context of those discussions, we have made an effort 12 to perhaps come up with a team that is the best team for 13 this project by pulling in members from other teams, so 14 that -- from one team to the other, so that we can get 15 the full complement of experience that we need on a 16 single team and so that we could all agree on the best 17 possible candidate. And with that for now, may I ask 18 Erica Beck if she could give us an update on where we 19 sit with that process.

20 ERICA BECK: Well, I think that the four members
21 of the selection committee spent a lot of time, and I 22 want to thank the Justice Department for putting in the 23 hours. We did have a number of calls and a number of 24 back and forth, and I think everybody worked really hard 25 and in good faith. And so as kind of part of that

June 06, 2013

3

1 continuing good faith effort, you know, to try and reach 2 a consensus, I'd like to offer the following motion to 3 put before the monitoring team that it drop the firm's 4 rates, and I think it's also in the best interests of 5 the citizens of the City of New Orleans.

6 So I move that the Selection Committee in their 7 recommendation to Judge Morgan that Hillard Heintz be 8 approved as the monitor, subject to the following two 9 conditions:

10 One is that Hillard Heintz would negotiate with 11 the following individuals who, I think, both teams
12 recognize add value and contribution to the monitoring 13 team. So those individuals would be Jeffery Albert,
14 Dennis Nowicki, Michael Bromwich and Michael Gennaco.

15 And then the second condition would be, in an 16 abundance of caution and to alleviate the concerns 17 surrounding any perceived conflicts of interest, we 18 would ask that the following individuals not be a part 19 of the monitoring team, and that would be Dr. Peter 20 Shark and Pastor Charles (Inaudible).

21 SHARONDA WILLIAMS: Do I have a second?

22 ANDY KOPLIN: Second.

23 ERICA BECK: Do you all have any additional 24 comments or discussion from the Department of Justice on 25 that proposal?

June 06, 2013

4

1 ROY AUSTIN: That proposal, among numerous other 2 possible proposals, were discussed at length, and it was 3 -- and the sides were unable to come to any agreement on 4 that proposal or any other proposal. So from the 5 Justice Team, I would say that that is not an acceptable 6 team.

7 ERICA BECK: Do we have any cards for public
8 comment or any other discussion on this particular 9 proposal?

10 UNIDENTIFIED MALE: I'm sorry, I'm just 11 clarifying and saying a little more about that. First 12 of all, there -- a number of the people on that possible 13 team that you just listed have not indicated whether or 14 not they will serve on the (Inaudible) team. In 15 addition, we have no real sense of what the cost of that 16 team would be, what the roles of any of those people 17 would truly be. It is a team that was thought out but 18 was not completely thought through. And so, there would 19 be no way for us at this stage to truly evaluate what 20 that team would look like or what that team would be 21 able to do. So for those reasons, the -- (Inaudible) 22 finds that team to be unacceptable.

23 SHARONDA WILLIAMS: Ms. Beck, do you have any 24 comments on that?

25 ERICA BECK: I would just say that I think we

TAPE TRANSCRIPTION

June 06, 2013

5

1 have reached out to all of those individuals, and while 2 it's impossible to say with certainty, without a firm
3 proposal on the negotiation, they have all expressed 4 interest, and I think they said the motion made clear 5 that what we're looking to do is engage, that is, have 6 Hillard Heintz engage in that negotiation, should the 7 Court approve our recommendation.

8 SHARONDA WILLIAMS: Any further comments or 9 discussion?

10 CHRISTY LOPEZ: Yes. I just wanted to add, in 11 addition to the points that Mr. Austin has made, that -- 12 I think we disagree that there is a high likelihood that 13 the team might actually exist, because we don't agree 14 that the people that you've listed would necessarily 15 agree to be on this team. They actually, explicitly -- 16 some of them have explicitly expressed in writing their 17 reservations about serving on this team.

18 In addition, I want to amplify a little bit the 19 concern that Mr. Austin raised about cost. We know that 20 is of paramount concern to the City. You are adding to 21 this team two individuals who were the principals of 22 other proposed monitoring teams. Mr. Bromwich, for 23 example, whose hourly rate is $495.00, and to add those 24 sorts of costs, of Mr. Bromwich and Mr. Gennaco and to 25 give them a meaningful role, we think would have to

June 06, 2013

6

1 create a very costly team.

2 And, once you do all that, even assuming if you
3 get all of these individuals on this team, which we're 4 not sure you could, we don't know what kind of 5 (Inaudible) they would be able to have, because they 6 don't - we didn't bring together this team ourselves; 7 we don't know what the costs would be, but even assuming 8 we were (Inaudible) that we can argue would still not be 9 as good as the Sheppard Mullin team that's already been 10 put together, that we already have at the new cost, and 11 that we already know that they want to work together and 12 have agreed to work together.

13 SHARONDA WILLIAMS: And let me just comment on 14 one of the things that we did in this interim period 15 since April 15th. The Hillard Heintz team actually 16 reached out in light of some of the Department of 17 Justice's stated concerns about their perceived 18 deficiencies in the Hillard Heintz team, and that's how 19 Bromwich and Gennaco were contacted, and we did have a 20 conversation with those two gentlemen, who indicated a 21 willingness to work with the Hillard Heintz team. The 22 Hillard Heintz team has also indicated that they 23 considered the cost implications of adding those members 24 to their team, and they are willing to address those, 25 and the assessment that they've done, the initial

7

1 assessment is still below the number that the Sheppard
2 Mullin team proposed to us. So we are not as concerned 3 about mixing the team in the manner that Ms. Beck has 4 just suggested.

5 ERICA BECK: And I would add to that that we do
6 have serious concerns about the Sheppard Mullin cost 7 proposal. We have received some additional information
8 that has heightened the concerns that we have raised
9 previously about the cost of the Sheppard Mullin 10 proposal. Specifically, we came across a case with the 11 City of Southgate in California, where the firm 12 ultimately paid back $2 million due to a fee dispute.
13 And we were somewhat alarmed by some of the statements
14 made by the Court in that case, and most particularly, a 15 statement by a Judge Shook that the Court found that the 16 fees charged by the -- charged the City by Sheppard
17 Mullin were more than excessive and unreasonable, 18 transcending beyond the stratosphere into deep outer 19 space.

20 So that hit a deep chord with us and obviously 21 (Inaudible) and it costs the whole time. So this 22 concern in this case, and this previous experience with 23 the Sheppard Mullin team, and this fee dispute, further 24 highlights our concern and exacerbates those concerns 25 with cost.

June 06, 2013

8

1 SHARONDA WILLIAMS: I'm sorry. Is there any 2 indication that anybody on the Sheppard Mullin team was 3 involved in this case that you just involved --that you 4 just mentioned?

5 ERICA BECK: Yes. Sheppard Mullin was the firm.

6 SHARONDA WILLIAMS: Right, they were the firm,
7 but how many attorneys work for them?

8 ERICA BECK: I'm not sure that we have gotten a 9 clear indication of who on the Sheppard Mullin team 10 would be restricted for billing purposes. I know that 11 they talked about their extensive network and their 12 extensive ability because of them being a 700-person
13 firm. I think those really echo some of the concerns
14 raised by the Court that, you know, they utilize 15 attorneys and non-attorneys that lack appropriate levels
16 of expertise, unnecessarily increasing the fee. So I 17 think that the thought of the firm using a number of 18 people besides perhaps just the two named individuals, 19 is exactly the concern that we have had the whole time 20 with using a big firm like that.

21 ROY AUSTIN: And did that proposal in the City
22 of Southgate have a deep ceiling? And was that a police 23 case? And is there any reason why you never mentioned 24 that to us ever before today?

25 ERICA BECK: We recently came across this

1 information since the last meeting.

2 ANDY KOPLIN: If I could make a comment. I
3 mean, in addition to the concerns that Ms. Beck just 4 raised about billing practices, I think it's 5 disingenuous to argue that the potential of the combined
6 team with Hillard Heintz and Mr. Gennaco and Mr.
7 Bromwich, which is -- the Hillard Heintz proposal is 8 substantially less than the Sheppard Mullin proposal as 9 it is. So the alternative to choosing Hillard Heintz is 10 to choose the more expensive Sheppard Mullin proposal.
11 And yet the advocates for the Sheppard Mullin team are 12 arguing based on cost, that somehow adding Mr. Bromwich 13 and or adding Mr. Gennaco would exceed the already 14 significant gap and overcome that gap between Sheppard
15 Mullin's higher price and Hillard Heintz's lower price.
16 And I think that that's not a reasonable expectation, 17 especially with the pledge that Hillard Heintz has made 18 to do their best to manage the addition of those team 19 members within the bid proposal that they've already 20 submitted.

21 ROY AUSTIN: I don't believe we ever said it
22 would exceed. We said it would be significantly more -

24 ANDY KOPLIN: Well, but it still --

25 ROY AUSTIN: I don't know whether it will exceed

1 or not, but I think the issue is that for Mr. Bromwich
2 and Mr. Gennaco to have any serious role with the 3 Hillard Heintz team would significantly increase their 4 cost. But I think beyond anything else, this is not 5 about choosing the least expensive team; it's about 6 choosing the best team. And without any doubt 7 whatsoever, this team that you are trying to create 8 right now does not even come close to the experience 9 that the Sheppard Mullin team has. As you noted, the 10 deficiencies of the Hillard Heintz team certainly goes 11 to the problem that we have, which if you do not realize 12 the importance of having someone who has monitoring 13 experience as your leadership, if you do not realize the 14 importance of someone who has some civil rights 15 experience on the team, that goes to questioning the 16 judgment of those who are organizing that team.

17 CHRISTY LOPEZ: Can I just add? I'm sorry.

18 ANDY KOPLIN: That's okay. Go ahead.

19 CHRISTY LOPEZ: I would just add that I think it 20 is clear that cost cannot be the paramount consideration 21 here, but it should be a consideration. But in 22 considering cost, it's important to look not just at the 23 bottom-line, but at the value, what you're getting for 24 that cost. And what we -- because that's what's going 25 to save you money in the long term. And one of the

1 things that we were concerned about the way that Hillard
2 Heintz put together, they seemed to be reflexively 3 responding after we raised these concerns -- we were 4 concerned that they didn't think about this on their 5 own, but they did respond (Inaudible) a positive. But 6 we're -- we don't want window dressing. We don't want 7 people to be added just to be responsible (Inaudible)
8 because we want that involvement to be real.

9 And our concern is that to make the involvement 10 in the whole, individuals like Michael Bromwich or 11 Michael Gennaco, real, that is going to be very costly, 12 and you can't just add it to a team that's already as 13 large and as full of (Inaudible) and some very good 14 people. (Inaudible) Heintz moved out; how do you 15 (Inaudible) much more expensive than the costs of 16 (Inaudible) forward, or they're not going to really be 17 providing the real values; people that they are adding 18 are not going to have a real role. So we did not think 19 it made sense for one from our perspective or from the 20 City's perspective, to take sort of an "I know" 21 (Inaudible) like that, when you already have a team that 22 -- you know, frankly, you're putting people on the 23 Hillard Heintz team that are at the core of the Sheppard
24 Mullin team. You already have that team. You already 25 know what the cost is going to be, and over the long run

1 you think they would provide greater value to the City
2 as well as being a better monitoring team.

3 ANDY KOPLIN: I just want to dive in, because 4 you all were the ones who brought up the cost issue and 5 made the case that somehow the addition of Mr. Bromwich
6 and/or Mr. Gennaco would somehow cause this to be a cost 7 issue and it's -- in defense -- in arguing for a 8 substantially more expensive firm, you're saying, "Don't 9 spend more on broadening your team." I would argue that 10 the gap, which I think is, you know, $1.8 million or 11 something like that between the two bids, is more than 12 enough to give both Mr. Gennaco and Mr. Bromwich a 13 meaningful role, and I would argue that in fact it's not 14 a reflexive determination, but in fact a very thoughtful 15 determination, in an attempt at the direction of the 16 Court to come up with a compromised team that would meet 17 the issues raised and the needs of the City, the 18 Department of Justice, and the Court to have an 19 effective monitor that we did, in fact, reach out to 20 folks who have significant experience to do our best to 21 say, "Okay, if we can have an all-star team of monitors, 22 who would be on that team with Hillard Heintz?" and 23 that's where Ms. Beck's suggestion generated from. So I 24 think it's a) providing greater value. I find it hard 25 to believe that it could exceed the Sheppard Mullin

TAPE TRANSCRIPTION
UNITED STATES vs. CITY OF NEW ORLEANS

13

1 cost, and we ought to evaluate it from that perspective.

2 ROY AUSTIN: But you -- you couldn't even sit
3 here right now and tell me what Mr. Bromwich's or Mr.
4 Gennaco's true role would be in this thing. You don't, 5 you don't know. And they don't know. And I think as 6 Ms. Lopez noted, I mean, it's largely adding window
7 dressing. It's largely filling in significant gaps that 8 the Department of Justice saw with the Hillard Heintz 9 team, by going out (inaudible) people who have done this 10 work before, who have done civil rights work before.
11 Well, you know, if that's the case then, Mr. Bromwich or 12 Mr. Gennaco should have been maybe the lead monitors
13 here. But through this process that we've just gone 14 through, we made a determination that you felt that 15 Hillard Heintz was the more qualified team or you felt 16 that Sheppard Mullin was the more qualified team.

17 We have in good faith tried to sit down and come 18 up with a compromised team. We have already focused 19 that team that you just mentioned here. We have found 20 that that team is not going to be of the best possible 21 value to the City of New Orleans to actually get the 22 City of New Orleans fully compliant with the consent
23 decree as soon as possible. We simply do not believe 24 that -- that team which has been created would be able 25 to do that.

1 ANDY KOPLIN: Do you have a alternate compromise
2 team that you would propose in view of the Court's 3 request that we try to reach an agreement? We've 4 proposed one.

5 CHRISTY LOPEZ: We did propose a number of 6 compromised teams, all of which were rejected during the 7 (Inaudible) April 15th. But I'm happy to go through 8 those, if you'd like.

9 SHARONDA WILLIAMS: Let me just jump in and 10 address --

11 CHRISTY LOPEZ: Just for the record though, we 12 gave them at least three additional compromised teams 13 that we offered and none of them were given any 14 consideration by the City.

15 SHARONDA WILLIAMS: Let me jump in and address a 16 couple of those comments. First of all, with regard to 17 the cost issue, I think that in our conversations over 18 the past month that we've had with the Hillard Heintz 19 team, they recognized that there may be some additional 20 costs with adding Bromwich and Gennaco. But they have 21 made a commitment to keep their costs down. And I think 22 that in one of the first two public meetings, we asked 23 them specifically about what efforts they'd made to 24 reduce costs, and they specifically said that they had 25 discounted their hourly billing, and it was not the same

1 as any rate that they would impose on any corporation.
2 So they are very mindful of our cost concern, which is 3 one reason why we believe that they are a better 4 candidate as opposed to this affirmation that --

5 ROY AUSTIN: -- I'm sorry. Sheppard Mullin, 6 similarly, is reducing their costs well below what they 7 would normally charge for this type of engagement.

8 SHARONDA WILLIAMS: Again, in contrast to a firm 9 that touts its 600-person law firm with concerns about 10 billing practices, we believe that Hillard Heintz is 11 still the best team. And with regard to responsiveness
12 versus reflexive, we have raised a number of concerns 13 with regard to the Sheppard Mullin team, things that we 14 believe are very important to this process: community 15 involvement, local participation. We've raised that 16 many times with Sheppard Mullin and they've still not 17 made an effort to identify any local presence here or 18 any community involvement or community groups. We've 19 asked them; they've failed to identify them.

20 CHRISTY LOPEZ: (Inaudible)

21 SHARONDA WILLIAMS: With regard to -- they 22 have not provided that information.

23 CHRISTY LOPEZ: They did.

24 SHARONDA WILLIAMS: They provided a framework by 25 which they would do that.

1 CHRISTY LOPEZ: Right. Which is what -- well,
2 that's not --they did provide somebody. They provided a 3 specific person. And, in addition to that, they 4 repeated what they told us during the interviews that 5 they felt that rather than coming with a preset team, 6 they wanted to make sure that they reached out to the 7 parties and committee to decide who (Inaudible).
8 However, when we raised the idea of having Judith 9 Williams Dangerfield serve on the team, they spoke with 10 her -- we spoke with her. They were very open to that.
11 So they agreed to do that.

12 SHARONDA WILLIAMS: They've agreed to do that, 13 yes.

14 CHRISTY LOPEZ: They have agreed to have a local 15 presence on the team.

16 SHARONDA WILLIAMS: And my point being that 17 Judith Williams Dangerfield was a member of the Hillard 18 Heintz team that we suggested to them and they have 19 agreed to it, yes. That is correct. And a moment ago 20 you made a comment about the level of experience, 21 monitoring experience. And we've received information 22 since our last meeting about Mr. Aronie's experience in 23 serving as a monitor and lack thereof, which causes us 24 also concern. So with all of that said, if there are 25 any other comments. We'll get to the public comment if

1 they're --

2 ANDY KOPLIN: Yeah, I just wanted to, if I could 3 take a moment to review some correspondence that we've 4 gotten. There's a lot of commentary on Chief Hillard's 5 role at our last public meeting. And the Court has 6 received a number of letters since that time, and I just 7 wanted to highlight a couple of them, if I might. And 8 I'm going to just read a couple of sections.

9 First from a letter from Chief Ramsey, who's the 10 Philadelphia Police Chief, who was also police chief in 11 Washington, D.C., and he's served as a member of the 12 Chicago Police Department. He wrote a rather long 13 letter. I'm going to read two paragraphs. One is, 14 "I've known Terry Hillard for more than 30 years.
15 Terry's a man of outstanding character, integrity, and 16 knowledge of policing from every level. Terry and I
17 worked together as command members of the Organized 18 Crime Division, Narcotics Section of the Chicago Police 19 Department, and as top executive command officials in 20 that department. In 1998, Terry and I were the two 21 finalists for the position of superintendent of police 22 in the Chicago Police Department. Terry Hillard was 23 chosen by Mayor Richard M. Daley to lead that 24 department. Mayor Daley made the right choice. I do 25 not know one of the individuals who spoke at the prior

UNITED STATES vs. CITY OF NEW ORLEANS

June 06, 2013

18

1 meeting. I cannot speak to that person's character and 2 motivation, and I'm paraphrasing, because I'm not 3 attempting to attack anybody who spoke at our meeting, 4 but I can say this: if anyone else attacks the 5 character, reputation, or integrity of Terry Hillard,
6 they have absolutely no clue whatsoever about the man I 7 know and have had the honor of calling friend and 8 colleague. Terry is one of the most respected
9 professionals in law enforcement, period. His integrity 10 is beyond reproach.

11 "I also know John Verge. There is no connection 12 between Terry Hillard and John Verge, other than the 13 fact that they were both members of a 13,000-member 14 Chicago Police Department. Drawing any association 15 beyond that is misleading and wrong."

16 The second letter is from Mayor Rahm Emanuel, 17 currently Mayor of the City of Chicago. And I'm going 18 to read one paragraph of his letter: "I'm writing in 19 several capacities, as Mayor of Chicago, as a publically 20 elected official, as a Chicago resident, to affirm, for 21 your consideration, my unqualified confidence and belief
22 in Terry Hillard's personal integrity and the very high 23 professional standards that he's always upheld and 24 expected of his police command and others. And I can 25 personally attest to the fact that the legacy of his

1 principal leadership continues to benefit us in 2013 is 2 evident in our communities, in the culture of our police 3 department, and in how members of these two critical 4 constituencies interact with one another across our city 5 every day."

6 I think that it's important for the public to 7 hear the other side of the story about a great police
8 chief who is leading the team that the City recommends 9 as our monitor.

10 ROY AUSTIN: Let me just spill out; we have 11 never doubted it (Inaudible). We've never said anything 12 about that. But he's never served as a monitor before.
13 And, there is in the record as well, the reports of the 14 investigation that was done regarding torture in 15 Chicago, regarding Mr. Hillard's role in making 16 decisions as to where that could go. Okay. That is in 17 the record. People can read that and see it for 18 themselves.

19 But the bottom line is, he has never monitored a 20 police department before, and we have explained to you 21 numerous times that being the chief of a very large 22 police department is very different from being a monitor 23 of a police department.

24 SHARONDA WILLIAMS: And I just want to note, you 25 made reference to the report of a special state's

UNITED STATES vs. CITY OF NEW ORLEANS

20

1 attorney that it's in the record, the court's record,
2 and I want to note that the conclusion of that report 3 was that Mr. Hillard had not been guilty of any 4 administrative wrongdoing or obstruction of justice or 5 police misconduct. And that was the conclusion of that 6 report. So I just want to make that clear that that's 7 what was contained in the report that's in the record.

8 And also just of note, Mr. Aronie has also not 9 served as a monitor, and so I think that's important to 10 point out.

11 And we are going to do our public comments. The 12 first speaker is Donald Chopan.

13 DONALD CHOPAN: Good afternoon.

14 SHARONDA WILLIAMS: Good afternoon.

15 DONALD CHOPAN: (Inaudible). We'll make it
16 (Inaudible) publicly accept a bail-out, a police
17 monitor, or a group to oversee the City, without due 18 process and could basically -- we'll be left with is 19 (Inaudible). One thing that's never occurred to anybody 20 and (Inaudible) is that you have police officers in the 21 City but not (Inaudible) with integrity, with 22 intelligence and (Inaudible). It might be best served
23 to be a police monitor, (Inaudible) City. (Inaudible)
24 For the vast majority of them, the majority of them, are 25 honorable men, doing honorable work. So why (Inaudible)

1 everybody concerned have somebody (Inaudible) in the 2 City as the police monitor.

3 UNKNOWN MALE SPEAKER: When we say that we went 4 through those people who had applied for it, and we 5 chose the monitor, from those people who (Inaudible), I 6 don't recall any current NOPD officers applying for 7 that, but I could be wrong on that.

8 DONALD CHOPAN: The second question is, for me 9 the biggest piece of this whole process is what part 10 will the community play in managing the police 11 department. What part will the community play in 12 marking the police and (Inaudible), because without 13 that, you just (Inaudible) ducks. This City has a -- 14 this City has massive (Inaudible) of hide-and-go-seek.
15 They won't wait until you leave and we (Inaudible).move 16 on to something else and it will be business as usually.
17 So probably 10 years from now (Inaudible)same problem,
18 for the same reason: right here right now.(Inaudible)
19 So how can you have a police consent decree without 20 giving some teeth to the community people who all who 21 are involved in this process? Like our police monitor 22 Susan Hussey. What's our role of this whole process?
23 What's the role of people who walk the streets, who live 24 in the community, and have been very, very proactive on 25 fighting against corruption in this City? Where do we

1 stand? Because when you leave, we going to be left. So 2 if you haven't incorporated us in this process, how can 3 you possibly have a process that's going to work? To 4 me, these processes are not going to be satisfied, let 5 alone even last, to my knowledge. And if so, please 6 correct me.

7 UNKNOWN MALE SPEAKER: Again, that was one of 8 the considerations the City had given in considering Mr.
9 Hillard, because he has a proven record in building
10 community support from the Chicago Police Department 11 from his work there and from reaching out to the 12 community, reaching out every element in the community,
13 involving everyone, in the decisions of the police 14 department.

15 CHRISTY LOPEZ: Similarly, a big consideration
16 in our choosing the Sheppard Mullin team, many of them -
17 - all of the experts and the police and professionals 18 have very strong histories of working with communities.
19 But we're aware that most people in this community feel 20 that there's not a strong enough -- a large enough hold 21 of the community in policing, or in overseeing, the 22 police department, and we understand that. And we 23 cannot fully address those concerns. I think there's 24 just, there's -- we can't come to the same place on 25 that.

1 We can say though, that there is more of a role 2 for the community in this agreement than in any 3 (Inaudible) that we know of. And there is a large role 4 for the community to play, and we have been intending to 5 be meeting with people in the community throughout this 6 process to make sure that their concerns are heard, that 7 their ideas are heard, and that they have input into 8 what happens. We have fought very hard to try to get 9 the community input with everything from policies to, 10 you know, daily practices.

11 Also, I want to assure you that we aren't going 12 anywhere until this project is done. That -- and what 13 we mean by done, is when the consent decree is fully 14 administrated and there's constitutional policing in New 15 Orleans. And that's why we feel it's so important to 16 get a monitoring team that is going to make the right 17 calls and is going to have the credibility to be 18 believed by the court, by the community, by the police
19 department, and by the City that it has made the right 20 calls.

21 We're going to be here for as long as it takes.
22 And we won't -- what we'd rather, we think we all want 23 that not to be another 10 years or 15 years. We'd like 24 to get done as quickly as possible. And we think the 25 way to do this quickly as possible is to get a really

24

1 good monitoring team. It will make our job easier, and 2 most importantly, it will make this department better 3 more quickly.

4 STEVE PARKER: One other thing. I think you
5 mentioned an independent monitor. One of the consent 6 decree incorporates a memorandum of understanding with 7 the City into the consent decree. So that she is an 8 active part of the consent decree.

9 Secondly, Department of Justice has assigned me
10 here full-time to work on the consent decree, and work 11 with the community. I talk with Ms. Hudson and 12 (Inaudible) and her staff every day. So they're heavily 13 involved in this. So they are involved.

14 I'm also here for the community. I've been to a 15 lot of community meetings. I'm available almost any day 16 of the week to meet with anybody and welcome anybody in 17 my office or I'll come to you. Whatever. Because it is 18 a huge part of the community. Because if the community 19 doesn't bind in and we don't establish community trust, 20 this is never going to work.

21 DONALD CHOPAN: I just want to say one thing, to 22 clarify my understanding on the vocabulary. In New 23 Orleans, in Louisiana, a memorandum of understanding, 24 don't mean -- and pardon my expression -- a damn thing.
25 Because it's a promise about a promise. And depending

UNITED STATES vs. CITY OF NEW ORLEANS

June 06, 2013

25

1 on who made the promise, it will be enforced or not 2 enforced.

3 Now, we're going from a memorandum of 4 understanding to (Inaudible) supposed to name that kind
5 of understanding that several governments (Inaudible)
6 the benefit. We don't have very many of those. So what 7 I would suggest that we have that type of (Inaudible)
8 Department of Justice for the City of New Orleans and 9 its citizens. Because our present police monitor will 10 have a memorandum (Inaudible) Memorandum of 11 Understanding with the City. But he had no stake, he 12 had no funds (Inaudible). Unless we have some real 13 accountability for the money and for the staffing and 14 for the results (Inaudible).

15 SHARONDA WILLIAMS: Okay. Thank you, Mr.
16 Chopan. Mr. W. C. Johnson is the next speaker.

17 I'll ask our speakers to please be mindful; we 18 are under Court instructions to provide them, the judge, 19 the results of this meeting by 5 o'clock. She may give 20 us a little leeway, but we would like our speakers to 21 try to stick to the three-minute time limit; okay?
22 Thank you.

23 W. C. JOHNSON: Yeah. You should have started 24 on time.

25 The City is trying to sell us on the fact that

1 the proceeds -- the proceedings should be inclusive of 2 an alternative plan, of reconstructing a monitoring 3 team. And you have presented this and gone forward with 4 this as if this was the consensus of your group. We 5 find out that it isn't. So if it isn't, then why
6 continue down that road? But since you brought this up,
7 you are correct when you say that the Hillard Heintz
8 group is not appropriate for this, and you are correct
9 when you say the Sheppard Mullin group is not 10 appropriate for it. What is appropriate, as you so 11 greatly have demonstrated and shown, is that we need to 12 go back to that pool of 10 that you kicked to the curb 13 and look and see if there is someone there that we can 14 utilize here as a monitor.

15 The other important factor that is as big as any 16 elephant in any room could possibly be, is that this 17 cannot go forward without community involvement. How 18 are you going to decide what's best for the community 19 and we have no idea what's on the menu to choose from?

20 Now, you have steadily tried to keep the 21 community out of this process, and the community has 22 steadily pushed and pushed and said that they have to be 23 inclusive. And here we are at an impasse. And you have 24 nothing more today than you had three months ago.

25 Now, I understand the City is trying to wear

UNITED STATES vs. CITY OF NEW ORLEANSJune 06, 2013
27

1 everyone down. They keep going back and they keep 2 having problems. They keep wanting to redo this 3 process. This process is not going to happen until both 4 teams are willing to accept community involvement, and I
5 don't mean window dressing, but I mean substantial 6 involvement.

7 You can't tell us what's best for us. Hell,
8 we've been out here all these years taking that pain 9 from NOPD. You don't have to worry about it. So how 10 are you going to tell me what's best for me, when you
11 haven't experienced it. We have community organizations 12 that know what it takes. Use the community
13 organizations. Don't grab a window dressing. Like I 14 heard someone the other day talk about, "Well, we worked 15 with the NAACP." Well, that's wonderful. But you need 16 to find some grassroots organizations to work with as 17 well.

18 So if you want this to move forward in a
19 reasonable fashion, you need the community input, and I
20 think we need to let the judge know that the community
21 is demanding an input in this. And since you haven't 22 been able to come up with a monitor, then let's look at 23 what you have overlooked and possibly we can find some 24 resolve there.

25 SHARONDA WILLIAMS: Thank you. Malcom Suber is

TAPE TRANSCRIPTION
UNITED STATES vs. CITY OF NEW ORLEANS

June 06, 2013

28

1 the next speaker.

2 MALCOM SUBER: Good afternoon.

3 SHARONDA WILLIAMS. Good afternoon.

4 MALCOM SUBER: Well, basically, we present that 5 you are at an impasse and that you cannot reach any 6 agreement. And we have said, (Inaudible) have said from 7 the very beginning that we would not be satisfied unless 8 there is some substantial community involvement in the 9 process of monitoring the New Orleans Police Department.

10 We don't believe that any monitor from outside 11 the City understands the culture of the City and the 12 culture of New Orleans Police Department thoroughly, and 13 will be like a babe in the woods without them. They 14 will be relying on reports from the New Orleans Police 15 Department, which criticize and try to justify all of 16 the unconstitutional behavior of the NOPD.

17 We don't believe that either group has a deep 18 and thorough understanding. Nor do I believe that they 19 have the advantage to really reach out to the truth-20 talkers. Those of us who would know the truth about 21 what's going on, won't make apologies for what's going 22 on, and we need to ensure, and we would appeal to the 23 judge that she ensure, that those of us who have been 24 out there on the front line for the past 30 years
25 combating police terror and police murders in the City

UNITED STATES vs. CITY OF NEW ORLEANSJune 06, 2013
29

1 that we are included in this whole process. And there 2 is no guarantee today from either group that there will 3 be some genuine representation from our point of view.
4 And that to me is the bottom line of what needs to be 5 done in this situation. So since you all can't reach an 6 agreement, please let the judge know that that's the 7 sentiment of the community.

8 SHARONDA WILLIAMS: Thank you. Randolph Scott
9 is the next speaker.

10 RANDOLPH SCOTT: Good evening. I want to say I 11 wholeheartedly support the two previous speakers
12 concerning their comments. I just want -- and I don't 13 (inaudible) I can repeat them -- I just want to add some 14 observations.

15 First of all, I thank the Department of Justice 16 for coming to New Orleans, because we wouldn't even have 17 gotten this far, if the City would not have investigated
18 the tortuous brutality of the New Orleans Police 19 Department. The local district attorney would not have 20 done that. If it wasn't for the Justice Department 21 coming here several years ago to investigate, they would 22 not have investigated the findings and we would not get 23 this far.

24 I heard a lot about costs from the City's 25 perspective. My being a former City employee, I am

TAPE TRANSCRIPTION
UNITED STATES vs. CITY OF NEW ORLEANS

June 06, 2013

30

1 appalled at how you all talk about the constant costs.
2 I have a whole (inaudible) of information in terms of 3 where the City of New Orleans is solely irresponsible
4 when it comes to costs; cost of personnel. And I mean -
5 - I think it's disingenuous for you all to talk about 6 how you are all cost conscious in this City. You are 7 not cost conscious when you spend money above Canal
8 Street and the CBD, but you are cost conscious when you 9 spend money below Canal Street, and that's a very 10 serious problem and flaw in leadership of the City 11 administration and documentation has already been 12 presented in terms of that and deal with the 13 investigations of the Row Home and other matters.

14 And, I want to also say, the Heintz group -- I 15 heard a comment indicate that the Heintz group will 16 extend a so-called handout to the community. I believe 17 the Heintz group has already showed its hands of 18 extension to the community in terms of their community 19 participation. I think that has been rejected by the 20 community wholeheartedly. So I know for a fact that the 21 Heintz group would not be the choice from this community
22 as I understand the comments and the nature of community
23 organizations. And again this is (Inaudible) community 24 involvement is sort of lacking and that needs to be 25 straightened out a great deal, and I expect that both

31

1 parties should come together and understand that we need
2 more community involvement in this process. Thank you.

3 SHARONDA WILLIAMS: Thank you. Deidra Lewis.

4 DEIDRA LEWIS: Good evening everybody; how you 5 all doing?

6 SHARONDA WILLIAMS: Good. How are you today?

7 DEIDRA LEWIS: Okay. My thing is, why do we 8 want Hillard Heintz as a possible person to lead this 9 when Hillard is accused of knowing about decades-long 10 atrocities committed under his watch. I'm not saying he 11 had anything to do with it, but he knew about it, and if 12 he did know about it, then that makes him incompetent at 13 best. Okay.

14 And as far as his money is concerned, he did 15 something money for paying for this by giving away to 16 the Deputy Mayors, and get rid of this team as defending 17 the atrocities that's been committed by NOPD through the 18 years. I don't understand how you can do that. I need 19 the DOJ to continue to fight on our behalf, thank you so 20 very much. Just like my previous equals said earlier, 21 what you all eat here is like the (Inaudible); it will 22 be back to Ku Klux Klan again. So please, continue 23 to fight. We're all on your side. And as far as local 24 involvement, why do you think -- we're local and we're 25 already involved. So we'll be a stretch. We'll use

UNITED STATES vs. CITY OF NEW ORLEANSJune 06, 2013
32

1 what you already have.

2 SHARONDA WILLIAMS: Thank you. Wes Ware is the 3 next speaker.

4 WESLEY WARE.: How are you doing?

5 SHARONDA WILLIAMS: Good. How are you?

6 WESLEY WARE.: My name is Wes and I'm the 7 director of an organization called Pick Up. I apologize
8 for the laptop (Inaudible). While we don't know much 9 about the Department of Justice proposed monitoring 10 team, we do know enough about the team proposed by the 11 City of New Orleans to know that we do not support the 12 Hillard team. We've spoken with and researched Hillard 13 through the people's logs at our Chicago, Chicago Anti 14 Bashing network, attorney and author of Clear Injustice, 15 Jodie Mobile, and (Inaudible) organizing groups of 16 Chicago made up of predominantly youth of color and 17 youth targeted by the police.

18 We know that Terry Hillard was sued by a team of 19 attorneys in 2003 while acting as the Chicago Police
20 Department's superintendent for violating citizens' 21 rights of free speech, assembly, and liberty, and for 22 claims of excessive force, battery, and the denial of 23 adequate medical care. This is following Superintendent 24 Hillard's command to round up and arrest masses of 25 people without warning due to a nonviolent protest of

1 the Iraq War in Chicago.

2 We've also heard numerous reports that while 3 Hillard was superintendent of the Chicago Police 4 Department, multiple members of the LGBT community had 5 serious complaints about the Chicago Police Department 6 and Hillard's leadership citing police profiling against 7 the LGBT community, inadequate police reports written on 8 behalf of LGBT survivors, and verbal abuse and brutality
9 of the LGBT community of color that went unaddressed.

10 A simple phone call to our friends and allied 11 organizations in Chicago, talking with police-misconduct
12 attorneys, and a couple of Google searches told us all 13 that we needed to know about the Hillard team.

14 Further, while the City continues to drag its 15 feet on this consent decree and play political games, 16 blocking reform at nearly every step possible, the people
17 of New Orleans, including black transgender young women, 18 LGBT people of color, and undocumented Latino 19 communities are suffering from police profiling, 20 continued harassment of our communities, and a lack of 21 thoroughly needed federal oversight by the NOPD.

22 SHARONDA WILLIAMS: Thank you. Norris
23 Henderson.

24 NORRIS HENDERSON: (Inaudible). I think we are 25 misjudging. Primarily because if everybody is finishing

1 (Inaudible) community in the (Inaudible) two people
2 going one way and one person going another.

3 (Inaudible). So they'll find their way back into this 4 mix. (Inaudible). Governor Ryan, when he was Governor of 5 Illinois, took everybody off to Denver because of the 6 behavior of the Chicago Police Department under Mr.
7 Hillard's watch. And so he probably didn't have nothing 8 to do with it. Maybe not. I hope he didn't. But at 9 the end of the day, it was callous indifference to what 10 happened to all those folks who got beaten and tortured 11 in Chicago.

12 Fast forward, that is New Orleans still. We 13 don't need that here. They chose somebody to represent 14 them in the community, and just like the last speaker
15 said, the community rejected those people. I applaud 16 the other group for not even offering somebody up for 17 the community primarily because they don't even know our 18 community. So how can you come in and say, "Okay. I 19 want this guy to be my community rep.," when they don't 20 have a relationship with the community?

21 The pastor and I have a relationship with 22 everyday people in this community. The pastor has never 23 been on the crime scene when somebody has been shot and 24 killed. You know.

25 Dr. Scharf Bernard, I like him as a person, but

UNITED STATES vs. CITY OF NEW ORLEANSJune 06, 2013
35

1 he's not the guy for this job to represent our 2 community. For two reasons: You know for two reasons.
3 One, because in the Glover Case, he worked with the 4 defense team in trying to get the police off. So 5 (Inaudible) work with our community. And you talk about 6 cost. I think you need to go ask the Glover family, the 7 Madison family, the Brown family, the Goodman family, 8 the (Inaudible) family. What price did (Inaudible) pay?
9 And (Inaudible). Thank you.

10 SHARONDA WILLIAMS: Thank you. Our final 11 speaker is Robert Goodman.

12 ROBERT GOODMAN: I'm Robert Goodman. Robert 13 Goodman Safe Streets/Strong Community. I'm here to be 14 the voice of my brother who was a victim of (Inaudible).
15 Among many other families who are still today
16 (Inaudible). And as Norris mentioned just a minute ago, 17 the costs. All these families to this day, you know, we 18 work together and still grieves on each other's shoulder 19 because of what happened. All right. And the City was 20 responsible for it. No retribution was ever given to 21 that family because of that. So they still have to -- 22 now the only thing they have is each other to lean on.
23 That's the healing process. All right.

24 And when I look back at my brother laying on a 25 slab -- because I was living in Dallas driving an 18

36

1 wheeler and still I have to be his voice, and I'm still 2 here. And I still have a 93-year-old mother who blames
3 herself for reaching out to the NOPD to give her 4 (Inaudible) son some help. How much does that cost?
5 When I think about just flying back from (Inaudible) up 6 until now, (Inaudible), the resource that was spent to 7 expose all of this -- I mean my organization (Inaudible)
8 still from all over the country and who (Inaudible) to 9 help expose and not to mention taking families across 10 this country, we dragged. We don't have no more 11 resources. We have spent all our resources trying to 12 expose this. So how much does that cost today? You 13 know.

14 Why is the community, you know, who has been the 15 experts, because had we not brought this to the City's 16 attention, would they have all believed this? And this 17 was before our administration. None of this would have 18 ever been happening. How many times do we have to keep 19 encouraging these families to stay forward and fight?
20 Fortunate for the Madison who had the resources to go 21 back and forth to DC to maybe eventually get the 22 attention after the Bush Administration to get the 23 Department of Justice down here. How much did that 24 cost? So we talk about price. You know. And I say I 25 have to look at my 93-year-old mother who is still just

37

1 crying. The other day she came holding something,
2 (Inaudible) she had brought to take it to the grave.
3 How much did that cost? And I truly hope that some 4 (inaudible) that they'll find ways to include the 5 community. We picked Susan Hudson; there was a variety 6 of people on the panel, but it was the people who picked 7 Susan Hudson, not the Mayor, although it was 8 (Inaudible). It was the people. So the people have to 9 have some part in this. (Inaudible). Every consent 10 decree that exists in the City solely comes from the 11 people who picked that out. The City couldn't figure 12 this out. We had to figure out, with no money, no 13 resource. All right. So I truly hope that some kind of 14 a way that -- you'll find a way to work this out, but 15 please include the people. Thank you.

16 SHARONDA WILLIAMS: Thank you. I appreciate all 17 the public comments. Are there any other comments from 18 any of members of the selection committee? It's been -- 19 a motion has been put forth and it's been seconded. In 20 accordance with the City Selection Committee Protocol, 21 we'll take a vote on that motion. All in favor of the 22 proposed compromised team that the City has put forward 23 - -

24 ROY AUSTIN: -- before we take a vote. It is 25 kind of clear where the (Inaudible) is. The City has

1 one opinion (Inaudible) Department. The Justice
2 Department has another opinion. I think at this point 3 what the proper protocol is, is to do exactly what the 4 Court asked us to do, and that is now by 9:00 a.m.
5 tomorrow morning to submit our papers in support of what 6 we believe should be the team for -- and I think that 7 will be based on a motion by the City asking for some 8 additional time. So I think that would be the best 9 (Inaudible) right now.

10 SHARONDA WILLIAMS: Regardless of whatever vote
11 is taken, the City intends to comport with the Court's 12 order. But at this point we will take a vote in 13 accordance with the City Selection Procedure. And - -

14 ROY AUSITN: Do you recognize the City Selection
15 Procedure is not the procedure that is part of this 16 process?

17 SHARONDA WILLIAMS: Well, that's the procedure
18 that the City has always advocated for. And - -

19 ROY AUSTIN: But you find this piece of paper 20 says that was not the process that was going to be used.

21 SHARONDA WILLIAMS: Well, that's the reason why 22 this meeting has become public; right?

23 ROY AUSTIN: No. This meeting has become public 24 by agreement.

25 SHARONDA WILLIAMS: Because of the City

1 Selection Process.

2 CHRISTY LOPEZ: No. The parties agreed to a
3 (Inaudible) which includes a public meeting, but does 4 not include other elements of the City Selection
5 Process. That's (Inaudible) what the judge ordered.

6 ANDY KOPLIN: But the City is the one who made 7 the request that we meet in public to the point that 8 were made by a number of the members of the community.
9 The only reason we're here in public -- this is the 10 first consent decree the Department of Justice has ever 11 done where the selection of a monitor was made in a 12 public meeting. We've now had five public meetings 13 because the Mayor of the City insisted upon these 14 meetings to be taking place in public.

15 ROY AUSTIN: We want to take a vote on all the 16 different things that are in the agreement because DOJ 17 insisted that they are in the agreement; we can do that, 18 but that would be kind of silly --

19 ANDY KOPLIN: You can make whatever motion, Mr.
20 Austin that you like.

21 ROY AUSTIN: -- and you can take your vote. We 22 know that it is all in the vote.

23 SHARONDA WILLIAMS: Yeah. Well, I just called 24 the vote. All in favor of the motion that was put forth 25 by Ms. Beck, indicate by saying "Aye".

1 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKERS: "Aye"

2 SHARONDA WILLIAMS: "Aye." All opposed? Any 3 opposed?

4 DEIDRA LEWIS: (Inaudible) we don't know
5 (Inaudible). We don't -- we're not clear on what you're 6 doing.

7 SHARONDA WILLIAMS: There was a motion that was 8 put forth earlier at the beginning of the meeting, 9 ma'am.

10 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKERS: Well let us go with the 11 motion (Inaudible).

12 ROY AUSTIN: Why don't we restate the motion?

13 SHARONDA WILLIAMS: Erica, would you like to 14 restate your motion?

15 ERICA BECK: There was a motion to recommend to 16 the Court the following monitoring team: Hillard Heintz
17 be approved as the monitor, subject to the following
18 conditions:

19 DEIDRA LEWIS: We'd opposed that; we don't want
20 (Inaudible).

21 ERICA BECK: Negotiations with the following
22 individuals: No. 1, Jeffery Albert; No. 2, Dennis 23 Nowicki; No. 3, Michael Bromwich; No. 4, Michael 24 Gennaco.

25 SHARONDA WILLIAMS: Officers. Again, the motion

1 was properly moved and seconded. There was a vote that 2 was taken. We asked for any opposition. No opposition.
3 Okay. (Inaudible).

4 ROY AUSTIN: The vote is not a part of this 5 process. The process now is that when we reach and if 6 we reach impasse and present our papers to the judge by 7 9 a.m. tomorrow, so that is where we are.

8 SHARONDA WILLIAMS: And we will do that 9 tomorrow. All parties will do that in accordance. I am 10 taking that to mean that you all are abstaining from the 11 vote.

12 ROY AUSTIN: We're not participating.

13 SHARONDA WILLIAMS: Okay. (Inaudible).

14 ROY AUSTIN: We've announced an impasse
15 (Inaudible).

16 SHARONDA WILLIAMS: Well, thank you all for 17 attending this meeting. We appreciate all public input 18 in this process. This will conclude the fifth meeting.
