The Court ruled on outstanding disputes concerning Defendants' responses to jurisdictional interrogatories. For the reasons stated in detail on the record, the Court hereby orders Defendants to supplement their responses to the specific interrogatories identified at the status conference no later than 12:00 noon, Wednesday, September 6, 2017. The Court was also informed of ongoing discussions between counsel concerning disputes as to certain proposed topics of examination for upcoming jurisdictional Rule 30(b)(6) depositions. Counsel for the parties were directed to complete the meet-and-confer process concerning those topics, guided by the various rulings as to scope, relevance and proportionality that have previously been issued by the Court on Plaintiffs' written jurisdictional discovery.
