Motion for Court Approval and Adoption of Special Master's Recommendations on Methodology and Allocations
(Manufactured Home Defendants Settlement)

NOW INTO COURT COMES Daniel J. Balhoff, Special Master, and moves for the Court's approval and adoption of Special Master's Recommendation on Methodology as Required by Court's Order of April 5, 2011 (filed on August 17, 2011) and Special Master's Supplemental Rulings and Recommendations on Methodology and Allocations (Manufactured Home Defendants Settlement) (filed on December 19, 2011) for the following reasons:

The Special Master has coordinated with the PSC, the CADA, and the Court-Appointed Data Management Consultant to procure and evaluate the claims submitted in accordance with the Court-established procedure in the matter between the PSC and Manufactured Home Defendants (as well as its insurers).

2.

The Special Master has made a determination on a methodology and the most just allocation of the settlement funds. The Special Master has also developed and implemented a method of informing the claimants and has recommended specific deadlines and procedures for claimants to object and appeal their allocations.

The Special Master anticipates that no one will object to the methodology, allocations, and procedures suggested in his motion.

WHEREFORE, the Special Master prays that Motion for Court Approval and Adoption of Special Master's Recommendations on Methodology and Allocations be granted.

Respectfully Submitted:
