

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF LOUISIANA

IN THE MATTER OF

DISCIPLINARY CASE

TIM L. FIELDS
ATTORNEY-RESPONDENT
LOUISIANA BAR ROLL NO. 24794

NO. 24-77

ORDER

This case stems from this Court's receipt of the Louisiana Supreme Court's order, In re: Tim L. Fields, 2023-B-00343 (La. 11/17/2023), 374 So.3d 95,¹ whereby Attorney-Respondent Tim L. Fields was suspended from practicing law for a three-year period and required to make full restitution because of his violations of the Louisiana Rules of Professional Conduct. After Mr. Fields filed a response² to his disciplinary notice, this matter was randomly allotted to Judge Brandon S. Long to conduct a hearing and other proceedings as necessary.³ Mr. Fields has now submitted a proposed settlement⁴ under Rule 7.8 of the Rules for Lawyer Disciplinary Enforcement. Attorneys from the Lawyers Disciplinary Board support the settlement.⁵ Judge Long subsequently referred the settlement to the en banc court for further consideration pursuant to Rule 7.8.

By majority vote⁶ of the Judges of this Court and pursuant to the stipulation of Mr. Fields,

IT IS ORDERED that Attorney-Respondent Tim L. Fields, Louisiana Bar Roll Number 24794, is hereby suspended from the practice of law before the United States
