POSITION OVERVIEW

The United States District Court for the Eastern District of Louisiana is seeking qualified applicants for the full-time permanent position of Jury Specialist. The Jury Specialist assists the Jury Administrator in providing the district and magistrate judges with potential jurors for voir dire selection on a weekly basis that conform to state and federal standards for qualified jurors and who are randomly selected through consistent processes that meet federal standards to ensure appropriate demographic representation. The Jury Specialist is primarily responsible for fairly and efficiently performing a number of duties related to contacting, qualifying, excusing, summoning, and orienting petit and grand jurors. The Jury Specialist assists in keeping accurate department records regarding attendance, payment and excuse/deferral requests.

REPRESENTATIVE DUTIES:

- Perform duties relating to the preparation and mailing of juror qualification materials.
- Assist in the receipt, processing, and sorting of qualification questionnaires.
- File, sort, and process juror qualification summonses and process incoming jury mail.
- Assist with the coordination of jury panels for judges on empanelment day, including monitoring and recording juror attendance and assisting with juror orientations.
- Prepare and mail summons notices and forms and prepare attendance certificates on behalf of jurors.
- Process returned summons (including data entry and preparing excusal letters).
- Operate the Court's Jury Management System (JMS) and e-juror component of JMS and other automated systems.
- Answer a high volume of telephone calls and emails from prospective jurors seeking guidance about their service to the Court. Represent the court to the public in a professional and courteous manner.
- Greet jurors and welcome them to the Court; brief them on Court procedures and jury service.
- Assist potential jurors with the check-in process and daily parking validation and answer questions.
- Assist with completing follow-up procedures to prospective jurors with incomplete questionnaires and persons failing to return their questionnaires.
- Assist the Jury Administrator in the day-to-day execution of the district Jury Plan.
- Perform other duties as assigned.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS:

Applicants must be a high school graduate or equivalent with a minimum of two years general experience and at least one year of specialized experience.

General experience is defined as progressively responsible clerical, office, or other work that indicates the possession of, or the ability to acquire, the particular knowledge and skills needed to perform the position's duties.

Specialized experience is progressively responsible clerical or administrative experience requiring the regular and recurring application of clerical procedures that demonstrate the ability to apply a body of rules, regulations, directives, or laws and involve the routine use of specialized terminology and automated software and equipment for word processing, data entry or report generation. Such experience is commonly encountered in law firms, legal counsel offices, banking and credit firms, educational institutions, social service organizations, insurance companies, real estate and title offices, and corporate headquarters or human resources/payroll operations.

Preferred Qualifications and/or Experience:

The position requires excellent computer skills, writing skills, and the ability to learn and apply federal and local rules. Experience with a variety of computer software applications scanning, and image creation is highly desired. It also requires a high level of proficiency in communication across multiple channels, including phone, email, and in-person interactions with the public, Court staff, and other stakeholders. Exceptional customer service experience is highly desirable, along with the ability to communicate in a courteous, patient, respectful, and precise manner.

Candidates must demonstrate proficient computer and typing skills, particularly in word processing, document scanning, and PDF management, as well as competency in email and web navigation. Dependability and accountability are essential attributes, underscoring a commitment to professional standards and reliability.

This role demands a highly organized individual with superior time management skills, capable of prioritizing tasks effectively in a dynamic environment. Attention to detail and accuracy are paramount, as the position involves handling a variety of assignments that require meticulous execution. Additionally, strong verbal and written communication skills, including a solid understanding of language, grammar, and spelling, are required to ensure effective interaction with a diverse range of individuals.

A bachelor's degree is preferred.
