POSITION OVERVIEW

The United States District Court for the Eastern District of Louisiana is seeking qualified applicants for the full-time permanent position of Criminal Duty Magistrate Judge Courtroom Deputy. The Criminal Duty Magistrate Judge Courtroom Deputy manages the Criminal Duty caseload and provides courtroom and other assistance through management of case filings, court calendars, court proceedings, electronic court recording operator (ECRO) duties, recording pertinent results for minutes and drafting relevant minutes and/or orders. The Criminal Duty Magistrate Judge Courtroom Deputy issues criminal complaint numbers, search warrant numbers and sealed miscellaneous case numbers through CM/ECF, performs all case administration and docketing for Criminal Duty Magistrate Judge cases, performs daily quality control checks on all filings in Criminal Duty Magistrate Judge cases, docket all search warrants and related documents, and manages case filings and attends initial court proceedings for CVB (Central Violations Bureau) citations.

REPRESENTATIVE DUTIES:

- Manages all criminal duty matters assigned to the magistrate judges.
- Sets dates and times of all criminal magistrate judicial proceedings and informs the magistrate judges and their staff members of case progress. Reviews materials and information related to scheduled proceedings to ensure that all records and reference materials are available for use by the judicial officers and counsel. Schedules interpreters, when necessary, for magistrate judges and district judges and coordinates with the Procurement Unit on scheduling/payment of interpreters. Maintains confidentiality of all sealed matters.

- Prepares daily calendar: Organizes, confirms necessity of each hearing, researches history of each case, and generates calendar. Issues notices of hearing to counsel and all parties involved of date, location and requirements of the hearing. Also prepares and maintains the yearly Criminal Magistrate Judge Duty Calendar.
- Attends daily court sessions in all criminal duty matters. Records proceedings utilizing electronic court recording equipment. Takes notes of proceedings, rulings and notices and prepares minutes of court proceedings and required documents such as bond and detention papers, appointment of counsel, criminal judgments, etc., as applicable. Participates in the criminal weekend duty rotation. On occasion, staffs court proceedings extending past assigned daily working hours and works to finalize related work.
- Assists with the orderly flow of proceedings including, but not limited to, setting up the courtroom, assuring the presence of all necessary participants, accepting and managing exhibits admitted into evidence, and swearing in witnesses and interpreters.
- Issues Criminal Duty Magistrate Judge case numbers through CM/ECF. Opens these cases upon receipt of initiating documents. Dockets minute entries of court proceedings, orders, and all other necessary documents submitted, or properly disseminates paperwork throughout the clerk's office for docketing. Closes cases upon receipt of terminating documents. Ensures that all automated entries are appropriately linked for proper case management. Answers inquiries on case status. Performs quality control checks on Criminal Duty Magistrate Judge cases.
- Issues search warrant numbers through CM/ECF. Dockets all search warrants and search warrant related documents.
- Prepares initial CVB docket, attends court proceedings, prepares notices, warrants, judgments, orders and all other documents that are necessary. Handles all correspondence, telephone calls and email inquiries related to CVB violations.
- Maintains and prepares monthly criminal duty statistical report.
- Acts as liaison among members of the clerk's office, the bar, and the magistrate judges and their staffs to ensure that cases proceed smoothly and efficiently. Coordinates criminal magistrate case activities with other courts, federal agencies, and attorneys.
- Receives Grand Jury returns in open court then processes them accordingly.
- Performs other duties as required.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS:

Applicants must be a high school graduate or equivalent with a minimum of one-year of specialized experience for placement at a CL-26, or a minimum of two years specialized experience for placement at a CL-27.

General experience is defined as progressively responsible clerical, office, or other work that indicates the possession of, or the ability to acquire, the particular knowledge and skills needed to perform the position's duties.

Specialized experience is progressively responsible clerical or administrative experience requiring the regular and recurring application of clerical procedures that demonstrate the ability to apply a body of rules, regulations, directives, or laws and involve the routine use of specialized terminology and automated software and equipment for word processing, data entry or report generation. Such experience is commonly encountered in law firms, legal counsel offices, banking and credit firms, educational institutions, social service organizations, insurance companies, real estate and title offices, and corporate headquarters or human resources/payroll operations.

Preferred Qualifications and/or Experience:

- Bachelor's degree and/or paralegal certificate is preferred.
- Preference may be given to applicants who have prior federal court experience, and/or courtroom experience in a similar position.
- Experience and judgment in creating, handling, or processing legal documents, such as that acquired in federal or state courts or law offices, is preferred.
- Ability to communicate effectively with a variety of people and skill in dealing with others in person-to-person work relationships.
- Skill in using automated systems for filing documents and extracting relevant information.
- Experience which reflects the applicant's ability to work under pressure and deal with change.
- Demonstrable ability to manage successfully multiple competing priorities and work with limited supervision.

- Excellent verbal and writing skills.
- Experience with current versions of Lotus Notes, Microsoft Word and Windows.
