

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF LOUISIANA

NOTICE

The United States District Court for the Eastern District of Louisiana is pleased to announce the selection of Janis van Meerveld as Magistrate Judge for the District subject to completion of a standard background check.

A 1987 graduate of Tulane Law School, Ms. van Meerveld has litigated cases for 29 years primarily in the state of Louisiana. Her experience included maritime law and general insurance defense before she began specializing in labor and employment and directors and officers liability litigation. Ms. van Meerveld comes to the court from Adams and Reese LLP, where she has worked for 27 years as an associate and then partner. She served as the head of its Labor and Employment team, as well as the long time chair of the New Orleans based ABA/EEO Liaison Committee. While at Tulane Law School, she served on the Moot Court Board and on the Philip C. Jessup International Moot Court team.
