THIS DOCUMENT RELATES TO ALL INDIRECT-PURCHASER PLAINTIFF CASES

PRETRIAL ORDER NO. 40

Indirect-Purchaser Plaintiffs (IPPs), together with Pentair Water Pool & Spa, Inc. (Pentair), move the Court to preliminarily approve a class action settlement between IPPs and Pentair.¹

Considering the foregoing motion, IPPs and Pentair are directed to provide the Court with the following information: (1) disclosure of the substance of all side agreements; (2) an identification of the proposed Escrow Agent and the qualifications of and the rate of compensation for the Escrow Agent; and (3) an explanation of the apportionment plan and why it is fair and reasonable, including an explanation of the procedure to be used to value and pro-rate claims and a statement of incentive payments to be sought for class representatives. These matters shall be filed with the Court by August 25, 2015.

New Orleans, Louisiana, this 13th day of August, 2015.
