FINAL JUDGMENT
In Accordance with F.R.C.P. 54(b)

This action came on for trial before the Court and a jury, Honorable Eldon E. Fallon, District Judge, presiding, and the issues of causation and unreasonable dangerousness because of inadequate warnings having been duly tried and the jury having duly rendered its verdict, accompanied by answer to interrogatories in accordance with F.R.C.P. 49, that Propulsid was not the cause of Richard Diez, Sr.'s death;

Further, the Court, by Minute Entry dated March 31, 2003, having dismissed with prejudice the plaintiffs' claims that Propulsid was unreasonably dangerous as a result of a defective design;

IT IS ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that plaintiffs, Patricia L., Diez, wife of and on behalf of Richard Diez, Richard Diez, Jr. and Marc J. Diez, take nothing and that their action be dismissed with prejudice and on the merits. The rights of the remaining plaintiffs in the above captioned matter are reserved.

Each party shall bear its own costs.

In accordance with F.R.C.P. 54(b), the Court makes the express determination that there is no just reason for delay and directs the Clerk to enter a Final Judgment with respect to all of the claims of plaintiffs, Patricia L., Diez, wife of and on behalf of Richard Diez, Richard Diez, Jr. and Marc J. Diez.

New Orleans, Louisiana, this the 31st day of March, 2003
