On April 27, 2009, the Court held a telephone status conference with the following counsel participating: Justin Woods, Jerry Meunier, Andy Weinstock, Joe Glass, Dave Kurtz, Adam Dinnell, and Henry Miller. During the conference, the Court ORDERED as follows:

(1) The depositions of minors Christopher Cooper and Craig Jenkins, Jr. shall be limited to 2.5 hours, reserving the right for the parties to request that the Court, if necessary based upon good cause shown, extend these time limitations.

(2) The parties may depose a Gulf Stream Coach, Inc. representative for 10 additional hours, which shall include questioning about the specific Alexander unit and other, more general 30(b)(6) topics. The parties shall attempt to agree on how to split the time limitations with the Government counsel. All time limitations are subject to extension upon good cause shown.

(4) Defendants may begin deposing Plaintiffs' experts as soon as Plaintiffs' expert reports are received. Once Defendants' expert reports are furnished, if Plaintiffs want a supplemental opinion(s), they shall file a motion for leave to furnish a supplemental expert report(s). Defendants may move for leave to re-depose Plaintiffs' expert(s), limited to the specific areas set forth in any such supplemental expert report(s).

(5) If a person is designated and produced in response to a notice for a 30(b)(6) deposition and participates substantially in that deposition, that same person may be directed to sit for a second, individual deposition only with leave of Court for good cause shown.
